

Veterans receive priority service at job service offices and are given priority in DLR training programs.

For more information on the services available to you as a veteran, visit dlr.sd.gov/veterans.

You can also register online with SDWORKS to seek current job openings, obtain labor market information, and take interest assessments.

What can the South Dakota Department of Labor and Regulation do for me?

If you have served in the military or are a spouse of someone who has served, our trained employment specialists can help you with job-seeking services including:

- ★ Resume development
- ★ Interview assistance
- ★ Connecting with programs offering financial assistance for supports or training
- ★ Identifying employment interests and goals
- ★ Cross-matching military skills to civilian careers with similar skills
- ★ Interest and aptitude assessments
- ★ Explore training, on-the-job training or apprenticeship possibilities

dlr.sd.gov/veterans

Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act

USERRA protects civilian job rights and benefits for veterans and members of Reserve components.

Uniformed Service members may inquire about USERRA with any questions they may have about reemployment, employment, or benefits related to their military service. To inquire about your rights under USERRA, contact the Veterans' Employment and Training Service (VETS) office for South Dakota.

Veterans' Employment and Training for South Dakota

Jeffery VanCuren, Director
Veterans' Employment and Training Service (VETS)

U.S. Department of Labor
2330 N. Maple Ave., Suite 1
Rapid City, SD 57701
605.872.4315
VanCuren.Jeffery.P@dol.gov

USERRA Resources:

www.dol.gov/agencies/vets/programs/userra/resources

